Joroslow to Direct SM County Chest Drive

Jerry Joroslow has been appointed campaign director for this year's San Mateo County Community Chest drive, George A. McQueen, chairman of the executive campaign committee, announced Wednesday.

Joroslow, who was publicity director in the successful 1947 Chest campaign, is now associated as publicity counselor and advertising manager of the George W. Trabert Business Mail Service, San Mateo. He is the fomer editor and copublisher of Peninsula Life Magazine. He was the manager of the Manor Theater for four years and during that time was active as a South San Mateo civic leader assisting the organizing of the South San Mateo Merchants Assn. He was the founder and first managing editor of the San Mateo Post and for over two years conducted a weekly radio forum broadcast on stations KVSM and KSMO.

His campaign plans for this year's Chest fund raising drive calls for an army of 6000 volunteer workers who, working in "clean sweep" units, will contact every resident and business firm in the county. They will be supervised by a staff of hard-hitting division and local chairmen. Joroslow said that all local Chest officials will be men and women who are aggressive leaders in their home communities.

Joroslow pointed out that it is the aim of the Chest this year to show county residents that all towns and areas in the county benefit by the funds collected by the Chest. He emphasized that the agencies supported by the Chest are countywide in scope offering their services to adults as well as boys and girls.

As part of an incentive plan to push this year's drive "over the top," the campaign committee, according to Joroslow, will award Chest workers gold, silver and bronze red feather "Oscar" trophies for those collecting the highest quotas, making the most calls, getting the largest contribution, or having the best organized district. The awards will be made at the end of the campaign.

The Chest drive starts on Oct. 1.

$3000 Fire In Home On First Ave.

A fire did $3000 damage to a house and its furnishings at 339 First Ave., Dumbarton Oaks, late Saturday during the absence of its occupants, the county forest service reported Monday.

The house is the home of H. E. Gravelle, firemen said.

The fire started behind a water heater, among clothing and mops which had been placed between the heater and the wall. It swept along the wall, and was noticed by neighbors.

The forestry service sent three trucks to the blaze. The county crews were assisted by two trucks from the Menlo Park Fire Dist., and three from Redwood City.

The blaze started about 5 p.m., and was extinguished about an hour later.

Furnishings damaged included a washing machine, sewing machine and clothing. The interior walls and ceilings of the house were blistered by the heat and discolored by the smoke.

Commuters Club Calls for Action

The Redwood City Commuter's Club has called upon the city's other service clubs for joint action to obtain a proper meeting place for Boy Scout troops. The club was informed that its troop, now housed at Lincoln School, would be homeless Sept. 1.

Chester C. Armstrong called upon the club for assistance in the project of furnishing a room at the projected Sequoia Hospital. He said other groups should be encouraged to undertake similar projects.

Paul A. McCarthy reported that Butano Associates, seeking funds with which to save from the loggers the 4700-acre Butano Forest, reported that San Francisco has been asked to vote a $250,000 bond issue as its contribution.

The Commuters voted to change their meeting date to the third Tuesday of each month.

Lorne G. McAloney Dies Unexpectedly

Capt. Lorne G. McAloney, prominent San Mateo County social worker, died suddenly Tuesday morning as the result of a heart attack at his home at 531 W. Poplar Ave., San Mateo. He was 69.

He had been ill periodically since he came to San Mateo in 1932. Captain McAloney retired July 1 as executive secretary of the San Mateo County Community Chest, a position he had held since 1943 when the organization was started as the War Chest.

He had served on the San Mateo County Republican Central Committee for aproximately 10 years as secretary. After being reelected to the committee at the June primaries, the well-known civic leader was again chosen secretary at the party's annual reorganization meeting July 13.

Captain McAloney, a native of Pennsylvania, lived in Ohio, Denver and Portland.

In World War I he was assigned to the Oregon Cavalry and served overseas for 18 months, six months of which he was in the army of occupation in Coblenz, Germany. His outfit received citations from the French government and from General Pershing.

He retired with the rank of captain from the army dental corps.

Polio Strikes Sixth Victim

Infantile paralysis has struck at its sixth victim of the year in San Mateo County, according to Dr. Harold Chope, the county's health director.

A 28-year-old Stanford Village woman, who became ill last Thursday, was taken to a San Francisco hospital Friday for treatment.

Hers is a "very mild case," Dr. Chope said.

Of the six cases reported so far in 1948, four have been from the south county area.

Two 17-year-old Menlo Park boys, stricken earlier this year, have responded satisfactorily to treatment and have been sent home.

A Menlo Park man, 27, is still in a San Francisco hospital.

The other two cases have been from the mid-county region—one a year-old Millbrae girl and the other a 13-year-old San Mateo boy.

They are undergoing treatment in a San Francisco hospital.

The county's worst siege of polio was in 1943, according to Dr. Chope, when 51 persons contracted the disease.

Three RC Youngsters Found After 8 to 18 Hours Absence

BY BUD SPRUNGER

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. May were doing a "few little duties" around the house Monday. The duties, prescribed by Mrs. May, are to impress them with the joys of reporting home at the regular and prescribed times instead of from eight to 18 hours later.

It all started Saturday when the children finished cleaning their rooms at 231 Poplar Ave.

Mrs. May gave each of them money for ice cream as a reward and they all started off for the Five Points Drive In.

When they didn't return the parents started looking for them. When that didn't work they called in Redwood City police and the chase was on for sure.

Eight hours later an officer brought in the youngest son, Michael, aged 3. Mike was found looking into a window at the Tally Ho restaurant but he didn't have much information on his older brother, Steven, 9, or his sister, Sharon, 7.

The search went on. Mr. May stayed home from his job with the Yellow Cab Co. in San Francisco and he and Mrs. May, who works at the Three Owls Restaurant, kept looking until 4 a.m. Sunday when they called a halt for some sleep.

Eighteen hours after the brother and sister dropped out of circulation Officer Theodore Moudakas found them at the Progress Lumber Co.

Mrs. May said that they were dirty, cold and hungry. So dirty were they that she had to wash them before feeding them, she said.

Just where Mike was during his eight-hour tour is a little indefinite.

The other pair told their mother that they went to Hawes Park and played around there for quite a while. After that they decided that they had been away from home entirely too long.

They decided that going home at that particular time would be a large mistake. The figured, Mrs. May said, that things would be exceedingly tough.

So taking a page out of Mark Twain's Tom Sawyer, they lit out for other places, finally making it to the Progress Lumber Co. where they slept the night out in a lumber shed.

Things are back Monday to a comparative state of normalcy. The youngsters are doing ther "duties" and the parents are breathing easier.

The big loser is still the father—he lost a day's work while hunting them.

Local Boys Score Wins In SF Derby

Bill Brown, 15-year-old Atherton boy, Saturday afternoon won the San Francisco Soap Box Derby and established a new course record, after a last-minute decision by Derby officials to allow him to compete.

Another local boy, Ronnie Brown, however, was declared eligible after judges of the Redwood City Derby declared the local Derby "no contest" because one of the finalists, Stanley Raaen, had not been allowed to compete in the finals because his car was apparently damaged after an accident in which a 6-year-old girl was fatally injured.

It was later determined that Raaen's car could have competed so the finals were declared "no contest."

Saturday Brown won the final race by several lengths, and set a record speed of 26 seconds for the course.

As winner of the regional finals, Brown will receive a free trip to Akron, O., and a chance to compete in the National Soap Box Derby on Aug. 15. He also was awarded a trophy, a radio, and a football signed by all the members of the '49er football team.

Griffin received a new Schwinn bicycle. Second-place winner was Michael Yaley of San Francisco, who nosed out Raaen in the semifinals.

Brown, who has been competing in the Derby for the past four years, is the second Redwood City boy in the past three years to win the regional Derby and the trip to Akron.

Two years ago Richard Bydgnes was first-place winner in San Francisco and went back to the nationals where he was defeated in the second round. Brown last year was runner-up in San Francisco.

Griffin, 12, 1561 Valota Rd., came in third in the final run, missing the number two spot by a few inches.

Last week Derby officials declared Brown ineligible to compete on the grounds that as winner of the Redwood City Soap Box Derby he could not enter since the Redwood City event was not considered an official Derby.

Menlo Park Man Faces Possibility of Prison

Driving with a suspended license may cost Leo Pelton, 41, Rt. 1 Box 838 Avy Ave., Menlo Park, a maximum fine of $1000 or a year in prison or both, Menlo Park police said Monday.

Pelton was arrested at 12:55 Sunday morning in Menlo Park. His license was suspended June 23 following a drunk driving conviction in Oakland, police said.

Poisoned Mussels Result in Death

A warning to residents against eating mussels was reported Tuesday, after the state department of health reported that a San Francisco woman has died from eating poisonous mussels gathered on San Mateo County's coastside.

Dr. Sidney B. Clark, in charge of acute communicable disease services, notified Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, that the death of Mrs. Rosaline C. Bondi on June 27 was attributed to mussel poisoning.

Two other San Franciscans, Dominic and Asuntia Calabrese became violently ill the same day after eating mussels, all of which had been gathered at Pedro Pt.

Two cats which were fed mussels also died, Dr. Clark stated. He added that specimens of mussels examined show a high toxic content.

W. H. Stine Children Placed in Foster Home

Three young children, removed a week ago from what juvenile authorities called the "filthiest home conditions," late yesterday were ordered placed in a foster home conditions," late Tuesday parents' divorce case.

The order was issued after a juvenile court hearing before Judge Aylett R. Cotton.

The three children are Margaret Beth Stine, 3, and her sisters, Sally Ann, 2, and Willa Rae, 1.

They were taken from their Sharp Park home by their father, William H. Stine, mechanic, and a deputy sheriff. Stine subsequently sued his wife, Betty Jo, for divorce.

Asst. Probation Officer Anthoy Lovoi said that an attempt will be made to keep the three children together. He asked any prospective foster parents who are interested in the children to get in touch with him.

Stine was ordered by Judge Cotton to pay $75 a month toward the support of his children.

Auto Crash Proves Fatal To SF Woman

Mrs. Betty Jones, 26, San Francisco theater usherette injured Sunday night in an automobile accident in South San Francisco, died Tuesday in an East Bay hospital. She never regained consciousness.

Mrs. Jones was a passenger in a car driven by Phillip T. Carson Jr., 21, also of San Francisco.

The car failed to make the turn off Chestnut Ave. into Hillside Blvd., plowed into an open field and overturned 150 feet from the junction.

The car was a total wreck. Mrs. Verne Boldne, 21, San Francisco passenger, suffered minor injuries. Carson was treated for back injuries.

All three were taken to South San Francisco Hospital.

Mrs. Jones, the wife of a navy man, was later transferred to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland. She died shortly after lost or stolen late Tuesday, the the transfer Tuesday.

ICF Picnic Saturday

On Saturday the Redwood City branch of the Italian Catholic Federation will hold a picnic at Rosotti's Park in Portola. Reservations may be made with Thomas Giannini.

50,000 Theater Tickets Missing From Starlite

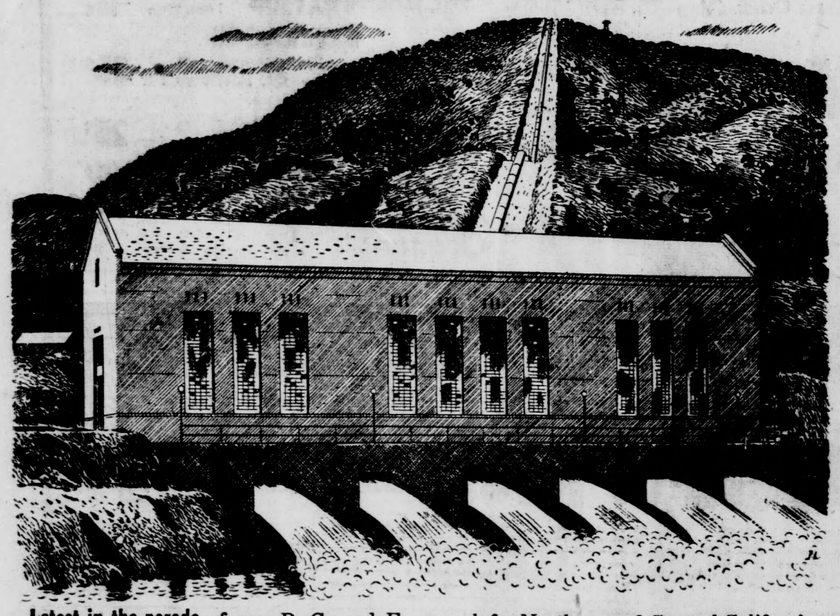

Fifty thousand tickets to the Starlite Theater, Belmont, were lost or stolen late yesterday, the manager, Walter Ries, reported to the sheriff's office.

The tickets were numbered serially from 96,000 to 146,000. Ries stated that the tickets were part of a shipment delivered to the oen-air theater Tuesday afternoon. One carton was unaccounted for when delivery was checked.

Each ticket carries a Federal tax of 12 cents, and Ries told the sheriff's office that the theater may have to pay the tax on any tickets unaccounted—amounting to $6000 for the 50,000 tickets.

Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore said that about 9 o'clock Tuesday night Mrs. Robert Ellison, 628 Madison Ave., reported that her son found 50 tickets in the 143,000 series near the John Gill School.

New Electra Powerhouse now pouring power into P. G. and E. lines

Latest in the parade of new P. G. and E. power producers is the Electra plant on the Mokelumne River eight miles from Jackson. New Electra is one of four powerhouses, completed or underway, spaced along the river...powerhouses to take the muscle from the Mokelumne and put it to work for Northern and Central California homes, farms and factories. One Electra unit began pouring power on the line this week and, when at full capacity, Electra will produce 133,000 horsepower. The four Mokelumne plants will turn out a total of 250,000 horsepower.

A pipeful of power . . . the penstock shown here feeds Mokelumne water from the reservoir to the powerhouse under high pressure. There it's jetted from giant nozzles at terrific speed against the water wheels that whirl power-making turbines.

Power enough to serve the cities of Berkeley, Richmond and Emeryville will pour out of New Electra. The entire Mokelumne project will produce nearly twice that much. And this is just part of our program of more power . . . to serve you better.

Work never stops on our power-building program

Vesser-Galletly Rites Performed in Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Joan Marion Vesser to James Howard Galletly Jr.

The young couple exchanged wedding vows at the Presbyterian Chapel in Carson City, Nev. on Saturday. Joan wore a powder blue dressmaker suit with a dusty rose hat and black accessories for the ceremony. Her corsage was of orchids.

The newlyweds honeymooned over the weekend at Lake Tahoe and returned to an apartment here, where they will make their home.

On Monday evening the Smiths gave a wedding reception for the couple. The health of the newlyweds was toasted with champagne by the immediate family and a few close friends. Mrs. Smith used baskets of gladioli and carnations to decorate her home for the occasion.

Present, beside the newlyweds, were Mr. and Mrs. James Galletly, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guisti, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Franks, Irene Harris, Dolores Vesser, the bride's sister, and Peggy Galletly, the bridegroom's sister.

On Tuesday night the bridegroom's parents were the host and hostess at a wedding shower for the newlyweds. About 25 of the couple's young friends attended. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and the centerpiece of the table was a tiered wedding cake, which the couple cut in the traditional ceremony.

Joan was graduated from Sequoia High School last month. Jim also is a Sequoia graduate and during the war he served in the marines. He is currently employed by the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. in San Francisco.

Mrs. L. C. Hack Fetes Bride-to-be At Luncheon

Mrs. L. C. Hack of Redwood City entertained last week at a luncheon at the Allied Arts Guild for Miss Jeanette Giavannoni, the fiancee of her brother-in-law, Robert Hack. The luncheon turned out to be a china shower, and guests gave Miss Giovannoni a dinner set.

At the luncheon Miss Giovannoni revealed that she and Robert plan to be married Sept. 19. The couple became engaged in December.

Among those at the party were Mrs. Peter Giovannoni, Mrs. Ray Haney, Mrs. James McFarland, Miss Shirley McFarland, Mrs. Charles McClintock, Mrs. Theodore McClintock, Mrs. Rose Magoria, Mrs. Joseph Delello and Mrs. Artusio.

Mrs. Jean McCann George Bulifant Wed in Menlo Park

Mrs. Jean Carol Warner McCann of Redwood City became the bride of George E. Bulifant of Virginia yesterday at 11 a.m. in the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church.

The couple was married in the presence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ople L. Warner of Redwood City, who will move into their new home at 2161 Menlo Ave. in Menlo Park soon. Other witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laning of Palo Alto.

After a short honeymoon the couple will reside in their new home at 2151 Menlo Ave., Menlo Park.

Mrs. Bulifant wore a white traveling suit with a matching hat and a corsage of orchids for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. W. L. Bone, pastor emeritus of the church.

Mr. Bulifant is employed at the Ames Laboratories at Moffett Field.

Wanda Orebough, Harold Vreeburg to Exchange Vows Aug. 14 in Carmel

The Church of the Wayfarer in Carmel will be the setting on Saturday, Aug. 14, for the wedding of Wanda Orebough of Millbrae and Harold Vreeburg of Redwood City. Only members of the immediate families will attend the ceremony.

Wanda will have her twin sisters, Evelyn and Carolyn Orebough, as her attendants and Harold has asked R. N. Buben of Redwood City to be his best man.

The couple is planning a wedding trip in the south and will return to make its home in Burlingame.

Wanda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Orebough of Ukiah, formerly of Chicago. She attended Chicago schools, and recently has been making her home in Millbrae with her twin sister, while employed with the telephone company in its Burlingame office.

Harold is the son of Mrs. Kathleen Vreeburg of Redwood City. He is a graduate of Sequoia High School and has been attending San Jose State College. During the war he served in the Army Air Corps and was discharged with the rank of captain.

Judge Orders Snellings To Trial

Alonzo Snellings, 37-year-old Redwood City shoe store manager, will have to face a superior court manslaughter trial.

He is charged in the death of Peter Gouzenes, 61, Menlo Park carpenter. Gouzenes died June 27, after he had been involvd in an altercation with Snellings outside a tavern near Redwood City.

And Tuesday afternoon, at a preliminary hearing held by E. I. McAuliffe in his Redwood City justice court, "sufficient evidence" was found to warrant binding Snellings over to superior court for a trial on the manslaughter count.

In one of the county's two superior courtrooms, where visiting Superior Judge Andrew Schottky of Santa Cruz County was presiding, Dionysus McGee, 23, Redwood City laborer, and his brother, Sydell, 16, pleaded guilty Tuesday afternoon to a robbery charge.

They were accused of robbing Clay S. Morgan, 32, 459 Park St., of $388 the night of June 18.

Judge Schottky set Aug. 9 as the day for passing sentence on the two brothers.

Clifford Elmer Haight, 37, of Los Angeles, was committed to the state adult authority for imprisonment action by Judge Schottky, after he had pleaded guilty to passing a $10 bad check in a Burlingame bank last month.

Across the hall, in Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton's courtroom, Everett C. Aldridge of San Francisco pleaded not guilty to a felony drunk driving charge.

He will be tried Sept. 23.

John B. Dockins, 39, of 147 Birch St., pleaded not guilty before Judge Cotton to a charge of attack with a deadly weapon.

He is accused of knifing his stepson, Roy Taylor, in a Redwood City tavern on July 5.

Judge Cotton set his trial date for Sept. 14.

52 Bales of Hay Stolen In Friendly Acres

Fifty-two bales of hay valued at $160 were stolen from a lot at the end of Halsey Ave., Friendly Acres, according to the sheriff's office.

The hay, part of 120 bales left on the property, was owned by Frank Osorio, 533 Hampshire Ave.

Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore said that Fred Tripps, Sequoia Trailer Court, was walking his dog about 1 a.m. Tuesday and saw a truck loaded with hay leave the area. The truck-driver did not turn on the lights of his vehicle until it was a block away, Osorio said.

The Parents' Corner

BY DR. RICHMOND BARBOUR, DIRECTOR
Guidance Bureau, San Diego City Schools, and sponsored by California Congress of Parents and Teachers

CAMPING IS FUN

Camping out is fun. Any kind of camping in any kind of place appeals to your young explorers. Even the backyard has its attractions. A tent made out of an old sheet works quite well.

Far better for most youngsters, however, are the organized camps held each year by the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and church groups.

If your children fall between the ages of 9 and 15, I hope that they will get to attend one of these camps this Summer. They learn many good things in camp like handcraft, hiking, fishing, horseback riding, woodsmanship, and swimming.

But the skills they learn are a lot less important than the new feelings they acquire. They get a new sense of independence. They find new realization of their own growth when they discover that they can be happy away from home. They need those feelings.

One of the most common mistakes we parents make, especially those of us who care a lot for our children, is to keep them babies too long. We tie them to us with strands of love and protection. We don't release them to learn to be independent. It hurts us to have them grow away from us.

A good many protected children never do learn to stand on their own feet. The psychiatrists found that out in the war. They still are calling us parents names about it, bad names.

Good camping experience helps to overcome that trouble.

We make another mistake too, fathers especially. We compete with our children in their sports too much. We almost always win. We are apt to be better swimmers. If we have any strength left, we can hit a ball farther, or we can land a big fish more skilfully.

Comparing themselves with us, our youngsters may conclude that they aren't much good. They may think that they are inadequate and inferior.

Out at camp, we are not around. Out there, they can compete with youngsters of their own age and ability. Out there, they have a chance to learn that they are not so bad after all. That is good mental hygiene.

Camps are busy all day. Children are up before 7, take group exercises, before breakfast. A clean up period follows and every tent has to be neat as a pin.

Then they have a long morning instructional period in sports and crafts. Before lunch in most camps they can go swimming and the poor swimmers all get lessons. From 12 to 1 they eat. And I mean eat. Watch them sometime if you think I exaggerate.

An early rest period comes after lunch, then the long afternoon activity period when each one works on his own project. Dinner is somewhere around 6 and is followed by a campfire with stories, songs and games. They go to bed early and are lulled to sleep by the sound of the soft evening breezes in the pine trees.

Send them to camp this Summer. They will profit from it.

Woman Suffers Rib Fracture

Nina Casel, 41, 1553 Jefferson Ave., sustained a broken rib Tuesday after the car she was driving went out of control and wedged itself between a telephone pole and a brick wall at the Eaton Ave.-Stanford Ln. intersection in San Carlos.

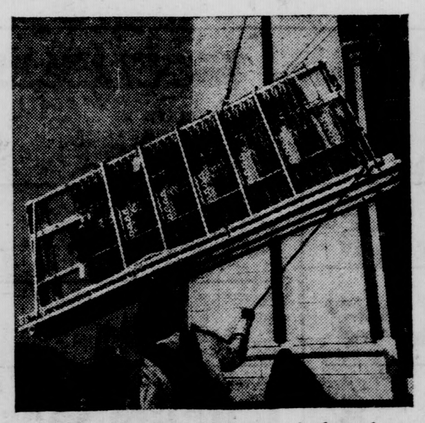

San Carlos police reported that the car was traveling north on Stanford Ln. and made a right turn onto Eaton Ave. when the accident occurred. Officers said Miss Casel reported that the car went out of control, jumped a curb and rolled along the sidewalk until it became jammed between the pole and the brick wall.

Miss Casel was taken to the Redwood Clinic by officers where she was treated for a fractured rib. The accident occurred at 8:25 a.m.

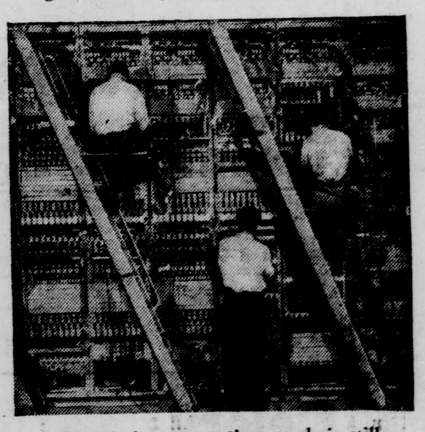

HOW TO SET UP HOUSEKEEPING ..telephone style

1. Building a home for telephone equipment is a big and complex job. The framework must be extra massive to carry heavy loads and resist shock. To make room for equipment, the stories are taller, too. This new building, larger than most but of typical construction, has fifteen floors...yet it's as high as a twenty-story building.

2. The "furniture" for our telephone home is the equipment needed to handle your calls, Manufacturing and installing it takes time...and lots of money. Your new telephones can't get to work without it, so we're putting in equipment, constructing buildings, and providing other facilities to the tune of over half a million dollars a day.

3. A lot of close, exacting work is still ahead. Thousands of tiny connections must feel the heat of a soldering iron before new equipment can handle your calls. Scenes like this are common in telephone offices all over the Coast today as we build and expand—in the face of high costs—to meet the West's growing needs.

4. Where does the money come from? Millions of new working dollars...needed to extend and improve service...must come, not from telephone bills, but from thousands of people who put their savings to work in the telephone business. To attract these working dollars, we must pay a reasonable amount for their use. This depends on the sale of our services at fair and adequate prices.
